

... I have great and lasting memories of my home in the Soils Building. I use the word "home" with intent because I spent much more time there than I did everywhere else combined. I was and remained very fond of M.L. For no apparent reason (he) treated me with a great deal of respect—something graduate students don't get much of.

Herbert F. Massey, MS 1950, PhD 1952